

We Attract Recognize Empower Singles Workshop

The We A.R.E. Singles workshop will teach you how to, Attract positive attention, Recognize the power you wield in relationships and Empower you for personal growth and success through a combination of hands-on learning, dynamic activities, and personal reflection.

Presented by Lyndi Wood and Andrew Mercer from the Center for Christian Life Enrichment

Summary:

The Strength of the We ARE Singles workshop lies in its proven combination of stimulating lecture, active participation, and personal reflection. Participants will learn how to Attract positive attention by looking at how their negative thoughts and patterns keep them from a higher level of relational functioning. Next, by introducing principles to replace these negative thinking patterns participants will Re-alize the power they wield in relationships. Finally, participants will work with one another to develop a plan of action that will Empower them for personal growth and success in relationships.

What to Expect:

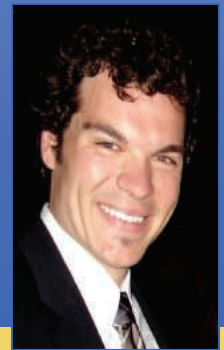

Expect to be challenged to grow in your self awareness

Expect to be heard and understood

Expect to experience a deeper level of aliveness, energy, and personal satisfaction
